OCCONEECHEE LODGE 104

NOAC FUNDRAISER TRADE-O-REE

GUIDELINES

- The Occoneechee Lodge 104 NOAC Fundraiser Trade-O-REE is open to scouts and scouters with an active BSA registration. Others must obtain Occoneechee Council permission prior to the event to participate in the event. Occoneechee Council and Occoneechee Lodge reserve the right to refuse admission/reservations to this event.
- As a registered participant of the event, the participant agrees to abide by the guidelines set forth by Occoneechee Lodge.
- No person shall make for sale or trade any specialized Trade-O-REE item with "Occoneechee Council, Occoneechee Lodge, 104 or the thunderbird or its likeness."
- Participants agree to abide by the Occoneechee Code of ethics:
 - On my honor I will:
 - Consciously, and fairly represent items of Scouting memorabilia.
 - Currently be a registered member in Scouting or have Council permission to participate.
 - Only trade a patch that I know to be a legitimate authorized issue of a Lodge, Council, or District or one that was authorized by BSA for production. I will not trade a fake patch without representing it as a fake or reproduction.
 - Never knowingly trade unfairly to another person.
 - Extend the hand of friendship to all collectors and traders.
 - Emphasize the importance of trading ethics to new collectors and traders.
 - Consent to following the rules and guidelines of the event, and additionally to those that apply to trading.
 - Help new collectors get started.
 - Educate myself on my patches and strive for fairness in all actions consistent with the Scout Oath & Law.
 - End all trades with a handshake to show mutual agreement of a fair trade and thank my fellow trader.
